2023 General Ed Competencies*

The results for the last three cycles are presented below

*Please visit the following link to our General Education Competencies (GEC) in our 2024-2026 University Catalog: https://www. columbiasouthern.edu/media/bucplzbn/csu-university-catalog.pdf

Holistic rubrics measure each GEC within embedded assessments across the undergraduate curricula. Each of the five rubrics defines each GEC on a five-point scale: (1) Level 1-Unobservable, (2) Level 2-Developing, (3) Level 3-Evidential, (4) Level 4-Competent, and (5) Level 5-Exemplary. The General Education Competency Committee determined that Level 4-Competent (80%) is the minimum acceptable achievement level, as common practice in assessment recognizes 80% achievement as mastery/proficiency.

For the 2022-2023 academic year, faculty measured student attainment of the five GECs through application of holistic GEC rubrics to 331 embedded assessments (a sample of n=98.586 student assignments) throughout the General Education Curriculum and the various programs within each college.

The results for the last three assessment cycles are presented below.

Percent of Students Reaching Target
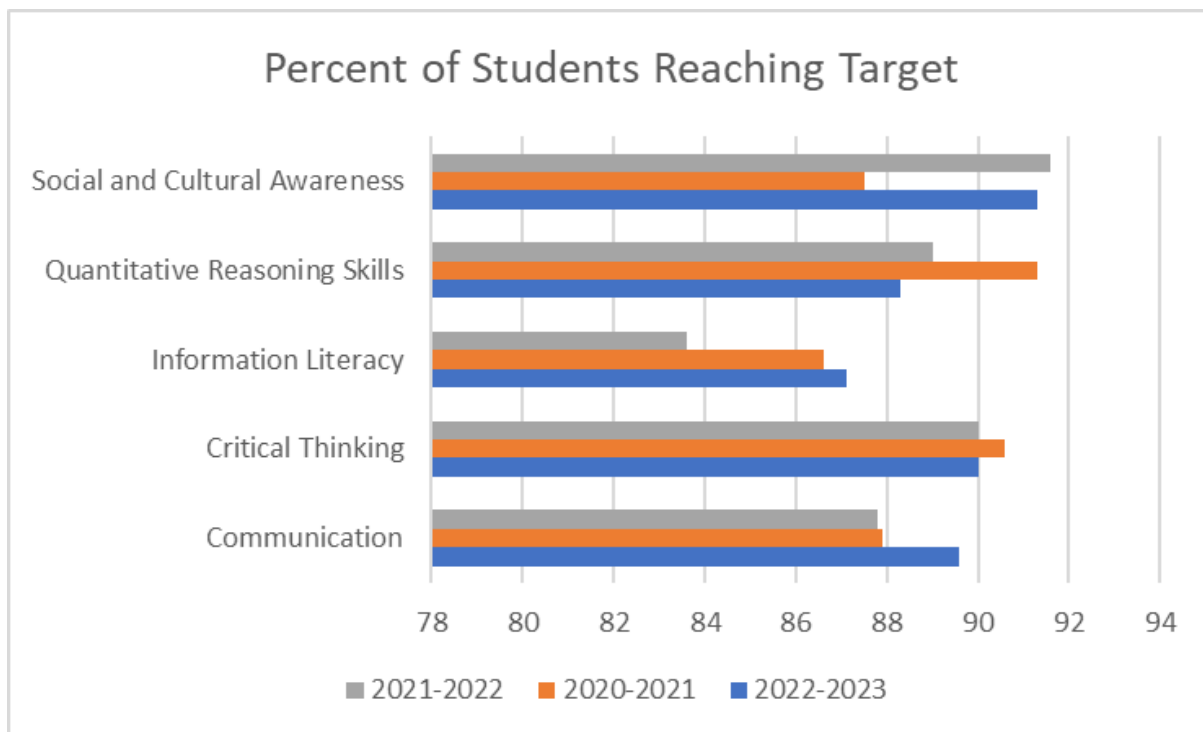

2023 NC-SARA

The National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA) is an agreement amongst member states that establishes comparable national standards for interstate postsecondary distance education programs and helps expand students' access to educational opportunities. CSU is an institutional participant in NC-SARA.
State higher education agencies license institutional agents to represent out-of-state institutions or recruit on behalf of their institution.

2023 Agent Licensure

45 employees approved as agents by the Alabama Private School Licensure (PSL) Division.
23 agent initial and renewal applications submitted to Alabama PSL during 2023.
