

Columbia Southern University (CSU)
Undergraduate Occupational Safety and Health Core Courses
Available to Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory Apprentice Students

- Earn up to thirty credit hours towards select CSU undergraduate degree programs.
- Obtain the CSU Undergraduate Certificate in Occupational Safety and Health by completing just four courses from the following.

| Courses  | Credit Hours |
|---|---------------------|
| ENV 4303 – Environmental Technology                         | 3                   |
| OSH 2301 – Introduction to Workplace Safety                 | 3                   |
| OSH 2304 – Introduction to Contractor Safety                | 3                   |
| OSH 3301 – Fundamentals of Occupational Safety and Health   | 3                   |
| OSH 3302 – Legal Aspects of Safety and Health               | 3                   |
| OSH 3304 – Construction Safety                              | 3                   |
| OSH 3309 – Training and Development                         | 3                   |
| OSH 3310 – Total Environmental Health and Safety Management | 3                   |
| OSH 4301 – OSHA Standards                                   | 3                   |
| OSH 4305 – Accident Investigation                           | 3                   |